Addreſſes—Of Thanks for His Majeſty's Speech from the Throne; to aſſure His Majeſty, That the Commons of the United Kingdom learn, with great Satisfaction, that the Differences with the Northern Powers have been adjuſted by a Convention with the Emperor of Ruſſia, to which the Kings of Denmark and Sweden have expreſſed their Readineſs to accede; and that Preliminaries of Peace have been ratified between His Majeſty and the French Republic: That they acknowledge His Majeſty's Goodneſs in having been pleaſed to direct Copies of theſe Treaties to be laid before them; and to aſſure His Majeſty, that they ſhall not fail to apply their immediate Attention to the important Tranſactions to which they relate: That they are fully ſenſible of the paternal Solicitude which leads His Majeſty to regret the Neceſſity of large additional Supplies; but that while they ſincerely participate in that Sentiment, they feel the indiſpenſable Duty of providing for the Expences which muſt, for a Time, be unavoidable in different Parts of the World; and of maintaining an adequate Eſtabliſhment on the final Reſtoration of Peace: That they ſhall be anxious for the Adoption of all ſuch œconomical Arrangements as may not be inconſiſtent with the great Object which His Majeſty has ſo juſtly at Heart, of effectually providing for the Security of all His Majeſty's Dominions: That they truly participate in the Gratification which His Majeſty has ſo graciouſly been pleaſed to expreſs at the Relief which the Bounty of Divine Providence has afforded to His People by the Abundance of the late Harveſt; and they acknowledge, with the utmoſt Gratitude, His Majeſty's gracious Acceptance and Approbation of the Proofs of that Temper and Fortitude which have been manifeſted by all Deſcriptions of His Subjects, under the various and complicated Difficulties with which they have had to contend: That they reflect, with Sentiments of juſt Exultation, on the diſtinguiſhed Valour and eminent Services of His Majeſty's Forces by Sea and Land, which at no Period have been ſurpaſſed; and that they have contemplated, with the utmoſt Satisfaction, the unprecedented Exertions of the Militia and Fencibles, and the Zeal and Perſeverance of the Yeomanry and Volunteer Corps of Cavalry and Infantry: That they moſt heartily congratulate His Majeſty on the Naval and Military Operations of the laſt Campaign, and on the glorious and ſucceſsful Iſſue of the Expedition to Egypt, marked as it has been throughout by Atchievements, which, in their Conſequences, and by their Example, cannot fail to conduce to the laſting Advantage and Honour of this Country: That they cordially ſhare in His Majeſty's earneſt Wiſhes that His Subjects may enjoy, in their full Extent, the returning Bleſſings of Peace, in the progreſſive Increaſe of the National Commerce, Credit, and Revenues; and above all, in the undiſturbed Poſſeſſion of their Religion, Laws, and Liberties, under the Safeguard and Protection of that Conſtitution which it has been the great Object of all their Efforts to preſerve, and which it is their fixed Determination, as it is their moſt ſacred Duty, to tranſmit, unimpaired, to their Deſcendants; 29 OCT. Addreſs reſolved on *Nem.
